Five Saints West Annual Lenten Retreat
"Be Still and Know That I Am God"

A Spiritual Retreat ~ Given by Professor Joseph Kelly

These Lenten Reflections will attempt to help you to slow down and deepen your relationship with God. Each evening will feature a talk and time for quiet prayer. Give yourself a Lenten gift and set aside the time to be with us for this special presentation.

Sunday, March 23, 7:00 - 8:30 pm St. Columba's
Be STILL...

...How can we learn to quiet our hearts and take time to listen to God?

Monday, March 24 7:00 - 8:30 pm St. Mary's
...and KNOW...

...How is it possible to really experience God in a meaningful way?

Sunday, March 30 7:00 - 8:30 pm St. Vincent's
...that I am GOD...

...How can we benefit more deeply from the richness of believing in a Triune God?

Monday, March 31 ~ Sacrament of Reconciliation St. Christopher's
Each evening will be followed by light refreshments.

After teaching Scripture at St. Bernard's Seminary for 11 years, Dr. Joseph Kelly joined the faculty at Nazareth College where he taught in the Religious Studies Department for 27 years. He now devotes his time to teaching Adult Education courses in scripture and theology in parishes and congregations throughout the Diocese of Rochester. He is also very active in ecumenical and interfaith work in Monroe County. Look for his article regarding Pope Francis' idea that the Church is a Field Hospital in America Magazine this Spring. He and his wife, Pat, will soon celebrate their 42nd wedding anniversary.

Our Lenten Journey

"The current and future reign of God will become clearer and more irresistible through the traditional work of feeding the hungry and clothing the naked, and the structural work of seeking to eradicate the causes of hunger and poverty so the peoples of the world may flourish and the context of peace is secure."

"Conclusion," p. 12 of Maria Riley, O.P.

Lenten Taize Service at St. Mary's

Deepen your experience of Lent with a vesper service in the spirit of Taize. Simple chants, readings for reflection, periods of silence, prayer, the quiet beauty of a candlelit sanctuary... come as you are and be renewed! All are welcome.

St. Mary of the Assumption is offering a Taize-style worship service on Sunday evening, April 6 at 7:00 pm. If you are seeking an opportunity for quiet centering and reflection during the season of Lent -- if you are curious about what a Taize service is like -- please join us and see for yourself.

March "Faith & Film Night"

Our Faith & Film series continues on Thursday, March 27th, from 6:30 to 9 pm, with another film for enjoying and discussing its faith messages. It's happening at St. Vincent de Paul Church's upper hall room, where free refreshments also will be provided.

March's free feature will be the Alfred Hitchcock classic "I Confess" (1952), a thriller starring Montgomery Clift as a priest who hears a murderer's confession. The tension mounts as the priest cannot reveal anything from the confession, although evidence in the murder case begins to point towards the priest as having committed the crime. Karl Malden and Anne Baxter co-star. Consider this film rated PG for adult themes and mild violence.

Please call 294-3085 to RSVP. Please let us know you're coming, just in case we need to contact you about a postponement, due to possible bad weather. Bring a friend and we hope you can

Acknowledgements will be in the bulletin after Easter.
