

Information about yourself:

To allow Father to better prepare for the funeral liturgy, and to relate the scripture readings to your life, we ask you to compile some biographical information and let us know about you. This is not the eulogy, or Remarks of Remembrance, which someone else offers at the beginning of the service. This information allows Father to represent you in his talk, not just your name, and relate your life to the readings selected.

The more information and stories you can provide helps not only Father, but the person honored to offer Remarks of Remembrance, as well as providing valuable memories for your loved ones. Consider this diary, of sorts, a chance to relate ideas and anecdotes that are special to you.
